

Bee Round 1

Regulation Questions

(1) The ethnic Albanian Khedive Muhammad Ali ruled this nation with Sudan after he defeated the militant Mamluk Dynasty. German troops invading this country in World War II were stopped in its northwestern city of El Alamein. Ferdinand de Lesseps built a large structure in this country, linking the Red Sea to the Mediterranean Sea. The Suez Canal was built in, for the point, what country that is led from Cairo?

ANSWER: Egypt

(2) Edward House influenced the American position on a treaty negotiated by this president, which was opposed by the Irreconcilables in the Senate under Henry Cabot Lodge. Prior to becoming US president, this man served as president of Princeton University. This president called for the formation of the League of Nations as part of his Fourteen Points, which he incorporated into the Treaty of Versailles. For the point, name this US President during World War I.

ANSWER: Woodrow Wilson

(3) Some prospectors in this industry were dubbed Wildcatters. Marion King Hubbert popularized the theory that U.S. production within this industry would “peak” by the 1980s. J. Paul Getty and T. Boone Pickens were two industrialists who made their fortune in this industry, which has recently boomed near the Bakken Formation in the Dakotas due to the use of horizontal drilling. For the point, name this industry that produces petroleum.

ANSWER: oil industry (accept petroleum before mentioned; do not accept natural gas or mining)

(4) One commander during this conflict was exiled after the Battle of Notium and was named Alcibiades (pr. all-sib-EYE-uh-deez). The Battle of Arginusae occurred during this conflict which ended with a decisive Spartan victory at the Battle of Aegospotami. For the point, name this conflict between Athens and Sparta, the subject of a work by Thucydides

ANSWER: Peloponnesian War

(5) In this country, fetal deaths by abortion and miscarriage are called “water children” and commemorated by a service involving statues of a bodhisattva who will guide them through the afterlife. Francis Xavier led a 16th-century Jesuit mission to spread Christianity to this country. A temple in this country is rebuilt every 20 years, and shrines in this country are built for the veneration of kami and sometimes feature torii gates. For the point, name this home country of Shintoism.

ANSWER: Japan (or Nippon)

(6) A park with a motif of ceramic lilies in this city was designed by the architect of a basilica that has been under construction for 90 years, the Sagrada Familia. Recent protests along La Rambla in this city have taken place in support of Catalan independence. For the point, name this Spanish city whose namesake soccer club has played numerous El Clásico matches against Real Madrid.

ANSWER: Barcelona

(7) Diognetus reportedly diverted mud to this island to capture a moveable siege tower. Philippe de Villiers de L'Ilse-Adam commanded the Knights Hospitalier to defend this island against Suleiman the Magnificent in 1522. A 226 BC earthquake destroyed this island's bronze statue of Helios. For the point, name this Greek island famed for its Colossus.

ANSWER: Rhodes

(8) This leader, who lost control of the Aksai Chin region during a war with China, claimed his country would "awake to life and freedom" "at the stroke of the midnight hour" in his "Tryst With Destiny" speech. The law minister B. R. Ambedkar was appointed by this leader, the father of another of its prime ministers, Indira Gandhi. For the point, name this first Prime Minister of an independent India.

ANSWER: Jawaharlal Nehru

(9) The Santisima Trinidad was captured during this battle alongside the flagship Bucentaure. Cuthbert Collingwood led an aggressive maneuver during this battle and took command of the British fleet after the death of a commander who used HMS Victory as his flagship. For the point, name this 1805 naval battle in which Villeneuve was decisively defeated by Horatio Nelson.

ANSWER: Battle of Trafalgar

(10) The third war fought between Britain and this country established the Durand Line, which split the Pashtun people between Pakistan and this country. An invasion of this country by the Soviet Union in 1979 led fighting against Islamic fighters known as Mujahideen. For the point, name this country whose wars with Britain and the Soviets included bombings in Kabul.

ANSWER: Afghanistan

(11) Put-in-Bay in this body of water was the site of a battle in which the captain of the Lawrence, Oliver Hazard Perry, defeated a British fleet. Industrial development on this body of water grew rapidly when Standard Oil's facilities were built on this lake's port of Cleveland. For the point, name this Great Lake which is connected to Lake Ontario via the Niagara River and was the site of a crucial battle in the War of 1812.

ANSWER: Lake Erie

(12) A city in this province hosted the 1976 Summer Olympics but lost its baseball team in 2004 when it moved to Washington. The Meech Lake Accords attempted to resolve this province's status. Maurice Duplessis [pr. due-pless-ee] once led this province which conducted independence referenda in 1980 and 1995. For the point, name this French-speaking province of Canada.

ANSWER: Quebec

(13) Over 1.8 million children were vaccinated against this disease as part of the Francis Field Trial, then the world's largest medical experiment. The March of Dimes advocated for eradicating this disease by funding the work of Albert Sabin and Jonas Salk, who invented two different methods of preventing it. The production of iron lungs sharply fell thanks to, for the point, effective treatments to prevent which disease that Franklin Roosevelt suffered from?

ANSWER: polio

(14) When news of this event broke, the Boston Symphony Orchestra immediately played the second movement of Beethoven's Eroica symphony, a funeral march. The soap opera As The World Turns was interrupted by Walter Cronkite breaking the news of this event. For the point, what November 22, 1963 murder was followed by Lyndon Johnson taking the oath of office in Dallas?

ANSWER: assassination (or murder, shooting, etc.) of John F. Kennedy (accept assassination of JFK; prompt on Kennedy alone; "murder" or synonym is not needed after mention in line 4)

(15) Edgar Snow commented that Communist forces formed a passion for this sport during the Chinese Civil War. Glenn Cowan missed his team bus in an incident involving this sport, during which he was presented with a gift by Zhuang Zedong. That incident resulted in a type of diplomacy named for this sport. For the point, name this indoor Olympic sport which uses paddles and has often been dominated by Chinese players.

ANSWER: Table Tennis (Accept Ping Pong)

(16) A Pulitzer Prize winning photograph shows three firefighters standing on ruins looking at this object. The first of these objects is often thought to have been made by a Philadelphia woman, Betsy Ross, though there is no concrete evidence to support that claim. These objects acquired two additional stars after 1959 when Alaska and Hawaii joined the union. For the point, name these objects that fly over Washington, DC and other American cities.

ANSWER: American (or US) flags (prompt on flag)

(17) This country is home to the Assamese language, which developed farther east than its related languages of Marathi and Gujarati. This modern-day country was home to the ancient Kingdom of Kalinga that was conquered by the Mauryan Empire. For the point, name this Asian country where ancient empires often included lands along the Ganges River.

ANSWER: India

(18) In the aftermath of this event, Bernard de Launay was beaten and killed by a crowd at the Hotel de Ville. Prior to this event, soldiers named invalides [pr. in-vah-LEED] had transferred gunpowder to the site of this disturbance. The sacking of Jacques Necker as finance minister was one cause of this event, which occurred on July 14, 1789. For the point, name this event in which a Parisian prison was mobbed by a crowd, helping launch the French Revolution.

ANSWER: storming of the Bastille (accepts synonyms for storming like assault, attack, etc.)

(19) According to information revealed by former Premier Roy Romanow, an event of this type could have occurred in Saskatchewan in 1995. An event of this type occurred in New Caledonia in 2018, and Carles (*) Puigdemont went into exile in Belgium due to another recent one of these events. The Clarity Act imposed conditions on these events in Canada, coming after a narrowly failed event of this type that was won by "money and ethnic votes" according to Jacques (*) Parizeau. Quebec has held two of these events, most recently in 1995. For the point, name these voting events that are often the first step in separating a region from its mother country.

ANSWER: Independence referendum (prompt on "referendum", accept clear equivalents)

(20) The losing side of this war later agreed to the Gadsden Purchase, allowing a rail connection between Los Angeles and Yuma. During this war, forces under Stephen Kearny captured Santa Fe without a fight. This war was ended with the Treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo, which set part of an international boundary along the Rio Grande. For the point, name this war between the United States and its southern neighbor.

ANSWER: Mexican-American War

(21) This ruler, who composed the philosophical treatise Anti-Machiavel suffered from depression after the execution of his possible lover, Hans Hermann von Katte. A coalition against this ruler was formed in the Diplomatic Revolution. For the point, name this ruler who conquered Silesia from Austria and fought Maria Theresa during the War of the Austrian Succession and Seven Years' War as King of Prussia.

ANSWER: Frederick the Great (or Frederick II; accept Friedrich in place of Frederick; prompt on Frederick or Friedrich alone)

(22) During his farewell address this man warned about the rising influence of the Military Industrial complex. This man authorized the Interstate Highway System after being inspired by having seen the Autobahn during his campaigns in Germany. For the point, name this US President who earlier served as Supreme Commander of the Allied Forces during D-Day.

ANSWER: Dwight D. Eisenhower

(23) Russia formally denounced the Kharkiv pact after this event and the Simferopol incident occurred during this event. "Polite People" or "Little Green Men" played an important role in this event when they seized the local Supreme Court building and the Parliament building. This event, which was formalized by a 2014 Accession Treaty, led to Russia being expelled from the G8. For the point, name this 2014 event where Russia annexed a peninsula from Ukraine.

ANSWER: Annexation of Crimea (Accept clear knowledge equivalents)

(24) This location was the site of the explosion of the French freighter Le Coubre; in the aftermath of that explosion, Alberto Korda's photo Guerrillero Heroico was taken. A Navy investigation cleared the presumed culprit of another explosion in this location, which Joseph Pulitzer's New York World and other yellow journalists blamed on Spain. For the point, name this city, the site of the USS Maine explosion, which led to an American invasion of Cuba.

ANSWER: Havana (accept descriptions of Havana Harbor; prompt on Cuba before mentioned)

(25) This country lost the region of Karelia in a 1940 peace treaty. This country employed a sniper known as the "White Death" when it was invaded during the Winter War. This modern-day country was transferred from Swedish to Russian control following the Great Northern War. For the point, name this country where a Soviet invasion in 1939 failed to reach its capital of Helsinki.

ANSWER: Finland (accept Suomi)

(26) A "walled city" in this city remained ungoverned for centuries. This city is governed by the Basic Law under the "one country, two systems" doctrine. This city's New Territories lie across a narrow strait from its Lantau Island. This city was ceded to its former colonial overlords by the Treaty of Tianjin. For the point, name this city handed over by Britain to China in 1997.

ANSWER: Hong Kong

(27) This event was interrupted by a very heavy thunderstorm which is known as the storm that saved its namesake city. In his memoirs, Paul Jennings recalled scrambling to save valuables prior to this event, and William Thornton helped to save the Patent Office during this event. It took place after Robert Ross defeated American forces at the Battle of Bladensburg. For the point, name this event during the War of 1812 that destroyed much of the US capital.

ANSWER: Burning of Washington (Accept clear knowledge equivalents)

(28) This man received military training in Algeria as part of his involvement with Umkhonto we Sizwe [oom-KON-tow we SEEZ-way]. This man was assigned the prisoner number 46664 after he gave the "I am prepared to die" speech at the Rivonia Trial, which ended with him being imprisoned on Robben Island. For the point, name this politician and opponent of apartheid, the first black President of South Africa.

ANSWER: Nelson Mandela

(29) In this city, the murder of Edmund Godfrey helped give credence to Titus Oates' invented claims. A king fled after attempting to arrest John Pym and four others in this city. Samuel Pepys' [PEEPS] diary records this city's last bubonic plague pandemic, as well as the devastating Great Fire of 1666. Sir Christopher Wren rebuilt St. Paul's Cathedral in, for the point, what capital city of the United Kingdom?

ANSWER: London

(30) The capture of this location came the year before the British "annus mirabilis," when Augustine de Drocur surrendered this stronghold on Ile Royale, which would become Cape Breton. For the point, name this French fortress in Nova Scotia that was captured in 1758 by a force including General James Wolfe, named in part for the Sun King.

ANSWER: Louisbourg

Extra Question - Only read if moderator botches a question.

(1) This ruler tasked Nikolai Milyutin with the creation of the zemstvo system in his empire, and he forced the Ottoman Empire to sign the Treaty of San Stefano. This relatively liberal ruler was assassinated by the People's Will twenty years after taking a massive step to improve freedom of labor in his country. For the point, name this Russian tsar who freed the serfs.

ANSWER: Alexander II