

Geography Bee Round 1

Regulation Tossups

(1) The Ten Degree Channel defines the southern reach of this island group, home to one of the least-contacted tribes in the world, the Sentinelese. This island group is paired as one of the Union Territories of India with the nearby Nicobar Islands. For the point, identify this group of islands that are part of the boundary between a namesake sea and the Bay of Bengal.

ANSWER: Andaman Islands (accept Andaman Sea; accept Andaman and Nicobar Islands)

(2) This location was the subject of a Denis Gale water colour that depicted tobogganing near one of its defensive Martello towers. Before a battle at this location, soldiers climbed the south slope of a promontory. Simon Fraser wears a green uniform behind the subject of a painting at this location, despite the fact that he was not present at the battle it depicted. Benjamin West's The Death of General Wolfe was painted at, for the point what Quebec site of a namesake 1759 Seven Years' War battle?

ANSWER: Plains of Abraham

(3) Along with the Tumen River, one country's northern border is shaped by this river, one shore of which lies in the city of Dandong in Liaoning Province. Sometimes referred to as the Amrok, this river was once the site of a zone of heavy aerial combat known as MiG Alley. For the point, identify this river that empties into the Yellow Sea and divides China and North Korea.

ANSWER: Yalu River (accept Amrok River before mentioned; accept Amnok River; accept Yalu River Broken Bridge)

(4) The Chalkidiki (kal-KID-ik-kee) Peninsula, which is home to the monastic community on Mount Athos, can be found within this region whose flag depicts the Vergina Sun against a blue background. This region contains Thessaloniki and the tomb of Philip II. For the point, identify this Greek region that is not to be confused with a country containing Skopje [[SKOHP-yee]].

ANSWER: Greek Macedonia (accept Makedonia Ksakousti; accept Famous Macedonia; accept Kozani before mentioned; accept Western Macedonia or Ditiki Makedonia before "2.3 million inhabit this region" is fully read and anti-prompt after; do not accept or prompt on "North Macedonia")

(5) This country's capital names an annual day-long motorsport event that hasn't been held in this country since 2007. Historical sites in this country include the Door of No Return, located in the House of Slaves on this country's Gorée [[goh-REH]] Island. For the point, name this West African country that nearly surrounds The Gambia and is governed from Dakar.

ANSWER: Republic of Senegal (or Republique du Senegal)

(6) Wool-weaving drove the medieval commerce of this region's cities of Ghent and Bruges [[BROOZH]]. Other locations in this region include its port of Antwerp, which is a contemporary center of the diamond industry. For the point, name this Dutch-speaking region in the northwest of Belgium, contrasted with French-speaking Wallonia.

ANSWER: Flanders (or Vlaanderen; or Flemish Community; or Flemish Region)

(7) This river begins in a country formerly known as this river's "United Provinces" in the Paraná Delta. Montevideo is separated from Argentina by this so-called river that is formed in part by the course of the Uruguay. For the point, name this "River of Silver" in Southeastern South America.

ANSWER: Río de la Plata (accept River Plate; do not accept or prompt on "Uruguay River" or "Paraguay River" or "Parana River")

(8) Found in the San Isabel National Forest, this mountain peak near the city of Leadville is the highest peak in the Sawatch Range. This mountain is the second-tallest mountain in the contiguous U.S. after Mount Whitney. For the point, identify this Colorado peak, the highest in the Rocky Mountains.

ANSWER: Mount Elbert

(9) The words "There is no conqueror but God" are written in calligraphy in this location, as they represent the Nasrid motto. The Alcabaza is part of this complex, and courtyards with fountains exemplify its Moorish architecture. For the point, name this palace complex in Granada, Spain.

ANSWER: Alhambra (accept Tales of the Alhambra; accept Al-Hamrā'; prompt on "The Red One")

(10) The northern reaches of this lake have been preserved by the Dike Kokaral, while its southern regions in Uzbekistan have been left to degrade. This lake, once fed by the Amu Darya river, suffered after cotton farming diverted much of its water for irrigation. For the point, name this lake in Central Asia that has mostly dried up.

ANSWER: Aral Sea

(11) The Empire State Building-inspired Al-Asmakh Tower in this city where the Aspire Zone is home to Khalifa International Stadium. Hamad International Airport serves this city, a major center of pearling and also home to the headquarters of Al Jazeera. For the point, name this capital of Qatar.

ANSWER: Doha (accept ad-Dawha)

(12) The Ulcinj Salina [[UHL-sinj SAH-lee-nah]] saltpan in this country is an important area for wetland biodiversity. This country's parliament selected "Oh, Bright Dawn of May" as its national anthem in 2004 after separating from Serbia. For the point, name this Balkan country whose English name means "black mountain."

ANSWER: Montenegro (or Crna Gora)

(13) Berenberg Bank and the magazine Der Spiegel [[SHPEE-guhl]] are based in this city, whose former mayors include Olaf Scholz, the current German chancellor. This city on the Elbe River is the third-largest port in Europe. For the point, identify this second-most populous city in Germany.

ANSWER: Free and Hanseatic City of Hamburg

(14) The Draa Valley can be found in this mountain range that contains such peaks as Ouarzazate [[wahr-zeh-ZAHT]] and Mount Toubkal. A species of macaque native to this range is sometimes known as the Barbary ape. Large Berber populations inhabit, for the point, what mountain range that spans the Maghreb in North Africa?

ANSWER: Atlas Mountains (accept Jibāl al-'atlas)

(15) This body of water is connected to Lake Saimaa by canal, and the Hanko Peninsula defines its northwestern end. The eastern border of this body of water includes the Karelian Isthmus, which separates it from Lake Ladoga. For the point, identify this arm of the Baltic Sea whose ports include Tallinn, St. Petersburg, and Helsinki.

ANSWER: Gulf of Finland (or Suomenlahti; or Soome laht; or Finskiy zaliv)

(16) It isn't dairy, but this substance's supply is managed by the FPAQ in Quebec, from whose strategic reserves Richard Vallieres siphoned millions of dollars of this substance. The wife of Woksis, an Iroquois chief, apocryphally discovered this substance after her husband cut down a tree near a cooking pot. This substance is usually harvested with taps in the "sugarbush" and poured on snow to create taffy. For the point, name this iconic Canadian sweetener often served with pancakes.

ANSWER: Maple Syrup

(17) Since 1999, this place has housed a reconstructed Brachiosaurus skeleton that was formerly displayed at the Field Museum. This site was previously known as Orchard Field and serves as a major hub for both American and United Airlines. For the point, name this primary airport of Chicago.

ANSWER: O'Hare International Airport (or ORD; accept Chicago O'Hare; prompt on "Chicago")

(18) Tea production is crucial to this country's Central Province, which includes the city of Nuwara Eliya. This country's Mannar Island forms the eastern end of Adam's Bridge, south of the Bay of Bengal. Formerly known as Ceylon, for the point, name this island country whose executive and judicial seats are found in Colombo.

ANSWER: Sri Lanka (or Ilankai; accept Democratic Socialist Republic of Sri Lanka; or Śrī Laṅkā Prajātāntrika Samājavādī Janarajaya; or Ilankai Jaṇanāyaka Sōsalisak Kuṭiyarasu)

(19) The city of Roskilde hosts a major music festival on this country's island of Zealand. The Faroe Islands are administered by this country, whose capital is located across the Øresund Bridge from Malmö, Sweden. Jutland [[JUT-lund]] is a peninsula of, for the point, what European country that governs Greenland?

ANSWER: Kingdom of Denmark (or Kongeriget Danmark)

(20) It's not Oman, but a region known as Jebel Akhdar can be found in the east of this country. Bikku Bitti can be found in the Tibesti Mountains in this country that also contains the Gulf of Sidra. For the point, identify this North African country that contains the cities of Benghazi and Tripoli?

ANSWER: State of Libya (accept Dawlat Libiyā; accept Libyan Desert)

(21) The indigenous Timbisha Shoshone were displaced were displaced from this region and relocated to a village near Furnace Creek. An ultramarathon ending at Mount Whitney starts in this region's Badwater Basin. For the point, name this region of the northern Mojave which contains the lowest point in North America.

ANSWER: Death Valley (or Death Valley National Park; accept Death Valley National Monument)

(22) This region's Rimé movement seeks to unify a set of schools that are nominally led by the Ganden Tripa. This region's Yellow Hat Buddhist sect was historically led from Potala Palace according to a title first awarded to Gendun Gyatso. The Dalai Lama resides in, ftp, what high-altitude region of China?

ANSWER: Tibet (or Xizàng)

(23) The La Marina Lighthouse is an often-visited location in this city that contains the Miraflores district. This city's namesake Metropolitan Area is formed with the nearby port of Callao [[KAH-yow]], and this city is thought to have derived its name from a Quechua word meaning "talker." For the point, identify this capital of Peru.

ANSWER: Lima

(24) This country's town of Oracabessa contains Goldeneye, the estate of James Bond author Ian Flemng. This country was subject to a 1692 earthquake that destroyed its buccaneer town of Port Royal. For the point, name this Caribbean island country that is home to Montego Bay and known for its reggae culture.

ANSWER: Jamaica

(25) In 2005, this country experienced eruptions at Ilamatepec [[yah-mah-TEH-pek]], a feature also known as the Santa Ana Volcano. It's not the Canary Islands, but La Palma is a municipality in this country that contains a cathedral where Bishop Oscar Romero was buried. For the point, name this Central American country with a capital named for the Spanish for "Holy Savior."

ANSWER: Republic of El Salvador (accept República de El Salvador)

(26) This city's wealthy Zamalek district is on its Gezira Island and can be accessed by the 6th October Bridge, which commemorates the outbreak of the Yom Kippur War. This city's Tahrir Square was one of the centers of the 2011 Arab Spring. For the point, name this city on the Nile River.

ANSWER: Cairo (or al-Qāhira)

(27) The tallest free-standing structure in North America can be found in this province, which is home to its country's largest zoo in Scarborough. Brampton and Thunder Bay are contained within this province that is served by Pearson Airport. For the point, identify this Canadian province that contains the CN Tower and Toronto.

ANSWER: Ontario

(28) This island's North Fork is located in Suffolk County, along with Montauk. Theodore Roosevelt's home of Sagamore Hill is located in Oyster Bay in this island's Nassau County, while this island's Kings County and Queens County are part of New York City. The Hamptons are on, for the point, what island in New York State?

ANSWER: Long Island (prompt on "The Island")

(29) Flights from Bundaberg Airport travel to Lady Elliot Island within this region, which was extensively covered by Google's Underwater Street View feature. This region that has been affected by sludge dumping and bleaching is found near Queensland in the Coral Sea. For the point, name this extensive coral system off the coast of Australia.

ANSWER: Great Barrier Reef (accept Great Barrier Reef Marine Park)

(30) Corporations such as the "M.T. Lott Company" acquired land for this region, whose public services are controlled by the Reedy Creek Improvement District. This region contains the incorporated cities of Bay Lake and Lake Buena Vista, and it operates the most-used monorail in the U.S. For the point, identify this Central Florida complex that includes theme parks such as EPCOT and the Magic Kingdom.

ANSWER: Walt Disney World Resort (accept Magic Kingdom Park, Walt Disney World Magic Kingdom, or The Magic Kingdom before "EPCOT" is mentioned; do not accept or prompt on "Disneyland")

(31) One of these places is separated from its home city by Endowment Lands that include Pacific Spirit Provincial Park. The steep incline in one of these locations on a hill in Ville-Marie resulted in a girl infamously being swept away during 2013 floods. A brutalist goose-shaped library in one of these places is named for former Ontario Premier John Robarts. For the point, name these educational institutions, examples of which include McGill, UBC, and UofT.

ANSWER: University

(32) This state's city of Chitrakoot is the location of JRDU, the world's first university solely dedicated to teaching disabled students. In 2000, Uttarakhand broke away from this state, whose major cities include Allahabad, Agra, Varanasi, and its capital, Lucknow. For the point, name this most populous subnational entity in the world, the largest state in India.

ANSWER: Uttar Pradesh

(33) This country's city of Tshwane is governed by the Democratic Alliance, though that party does not control Tshwane's Gauteng Province. This country's National Assembly has long been dominated by the African National Congress. For the point, name this country whose modern democracy was founded by Nelson Mandela.

ANSWER: Republic of South Africa (accept RSA)

(34) Deception Path forms part of the shoreline of this body of water that was named after a Navy lieutenant who served under George Vancouver. This body of water that is part of the Salish Sea is connected to the Pacific Ocean by the Strait of Juan de Fuca. Tacoma and Olympia lie along, for the point, what estuary system in Washington state?

ANSWER: Puget Sound

(35) The Groot-vloer Pan and Etosha Pan can be found in this region, whose name translates as "Dry Place" in the Khoekhoe language. Stretching nearly one million square kilometers, this semi-arid desert contains the Okavango Delta along the border of Angola and Namibia. For the point, name this African desert that covers most of Botswana.

ANSWER: Kalahari Desert

Extra Questions

(1) The two largest artificial reservoirs in the U.S. are located along this river. Those reservoirs, Lake Powell and Lake Mead, help to form the Hoover Dam on this river. Passing through the Grand Canyon, this is, for the point, what river that, with the Rio Grande, is one of the major rivers of America's Southwest?

ANSWER: Colorado River (accept Rio Colorado)